PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

April 2022

by Dave Smith

sdmgpresident@sdmg.org

WE MAY NOT HAVE CELEBRATED our Society's birthday with our Annual Banquet in March, but we are still awarding Scholarships this year. The Banquet is the occasion when two students would be introduced to our members and presented with a check to help them with their studies. Read about them on pg 3.

The Annual May Barbeque and Silent Auction has been placed on hold until 2023. In the past, this event has been held on City property. The permit requested for this year's event has been on hold for months. Our BBQ caterer for eight of the last 10 years, excluding the last two years due to Covid, continue to raise their charges. We also rent portable restrooms and tables for the silent auction. We need to re-evaluate this event also.

Finally, we do have some good things going on such as classes in Cabochons (adults and juniors), Faceting (beginning and advanced), Metals Fabrication (beginning and advanced), Casting, Rock Carving, and Sphere Making. In addition, each class is conducted and assisted by best the group of volunteers in the state of California.

I hope we'll continue to do our best to be the best gem and mineral society now and in the future.

If you have ideas or suggestions, feel free to contact me at President@sdmg.org. Thank you.

Justin Smith

William Tirk Scholarship

My background in craft and building started when my grandfather began teaching me basic fabrication skills at a young age. Once I began creating art, it was clear that his teachings and experience as a machinist shaped how I created. Precision and detail were two things I made sure to never overlook. My early work was always symmetrical and as close to being machine-made as I could make it. As I continued to develop my work further, flora and fauna became key inspirations. Whether it be structure, texture, or color, plants and animals have a clear impact. Reptiles and reefs in particular seem to make constant reappearances. As I switch between precise fabrication and interest in nature I find myself wanting to combine the two where possible. Jewelry has given me the unique ability to mesh these two sides with the inclusion of gemstones. Creating the findings let me express my fabrication desires and gemstones let me incorporate the beautiful colors found in nature. Currently, opals have piqued my interest due to their variations in color combinations. My most current project is a rendition of my lantern earrings. I have fabricated a new set made of silver and will be including a dangling blue opal in the center of each lantern. Similarly, ammolite has found its way into my scope of interest. I have acquired a green and purple section which I hope to incorporate with either damascus steel or mokume gane. This scholarship will allow me to continue my research on these metal types and ultimately allow me to create a signature series.

Hannah Carney

Carmelita and Bern Swarts Scholarship

Hannah Carney is a Master of Science Candidate at the Department of Geological Sciences at San Diego State University. Her research interests include watershed science, climate science, and physical and chemical weathering. Her current research focuses on differentiating the geochemical signature of surface sediments on the northern Papua New Guinea Margin. Following her master's defense in May, she will begin her field work in the western Sierra to study bedrock weathering and geologic controls on sequoia tree growth towards a Ph.D. in Geology and Geophysics at the University of Wyoming.

JUNIOR DIVISION

Coordinated by Dave Smith

OUR CLASS has been lightly attended for the past few months, but spring is here, and Covid-19 restrictions in the community have been relaxed. After two years of lockdown, it would be great to see more Juniors participating once again in the Saturday cabochon class. We are contemplating a class-paid field trip to a tourmaline mine.

If you know a young person between the ages of 12 and 17 who would like to create a piece of art of their own, the Juniors class is for them. Our class runs from 9:30 AM to 12:30 PM each Saturday. Rock rough, equipment, and instruction is all included. The cost is $10 annual membership and $1.00 class fee.

SDMG BOARD MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

March 21, 2022

This meeting was conducted via GoToMeeting, and was called to order at 7:02 p.m. by President David Smith.

Present electronically: President David Smith and Board members Andy Anderson, LuAnn Benton, Bob Hancock, Wayne Moorhead, Jim Parrish, Doug Peeler, Ellen Riceman, Nita Sani, Anne Schafer, Jennifer Stapp, Paul Williams and Jill Williamson. A quorum was present. Excused: Sally Parrish. Absent: David Lipson. Guests: Bill Brisebois, Yvonne Juarez and Simon King.

President's report: Jim Parrish gave a presentation about the new Tucson mineral museum at the February General Meeting.

Membership: Angie Cannon reported a total SDMG membership of 576, including 42 Juniors.

City Liaison: Jim Parrish has not yet received a copy of SDMG's new Special Use Permit from the City, but will follow up on this.

Museum curator: Jim Parrish plans to exhibit the dino eggs in the same case with the fossil bird, and is creating a new meteorite display.

Juniors: David Smith reported that Junior class attendance has picked up, with 5 students in attendance. He expects to hold a Junior field trip to the Ocean View Mine in the future.

School Director: David Smith reported that Steve Wright is taking over Tim Bickford's Tuesday night cab class, and Simon King will be teaching Tim's Wednesday afternoon cab class.

School Liaison: Bob Hancock reported that there are currently five faceting classes, plus the weekly online class is ongoing.

Motion carried unanimously to allow Bob Hancock to take the V-5 faceting machine and two heads (one Ultra Tec and one Facetron) to the Fair in order to hold faceting demonstrations.

Bill Brisebois commented that many laps need replacement, and the most economical way is to use toppler laps from Kingsley North at $25 each. Bill explained that the tin laps could be reviewed, and some resurfaced by a machinist.

School Management Committee: LuAnn Benton reported the committee had an in-person meeting, with input from Jim Parrish and Wayne Moorhead. The Committee will have a virtual meeting on April 4th, to revise wording of existing positions, and to create new positions and job descriptions.

Donations: Anne Schafer had new forms printed up; some were placed in the office and some were given to Village Silversmiths.

Outreach: LuAnn Benton dropped off SDMG info postcards at Miner's Gems and South American Imports in Old Town.

Friendship: LuAnn Benton ordered flowers for Nancy Brescia, recovering from surgery; and mailed a "Get Well" card to Jim Parrish.

Scholarships: Jennifer Stapp has two qualifying candidates, their names and contact info; she is waiting for their bios before mailing out checks.

Banquet: Jennifer Stapp mentioned the Masonic Lodge in Escondido as a possible new venue. Jim Parrish described the Elks Lodge in El Cajon as another good possibility, with a good caterer.

BBQ: Doug Peeler said permits are available.

San Diego County Fair: Anne Schafer reported that online entry is now available through the regular Fairgrounds website. Entry brochures have been dropped off in the Casting Room.

Paul Williams could line up two sphere demonstrators each Saturday and Sunday. Bob Hancock could get two faceting demonstrators each weekday. Sand pile volunteers are to contact Jennifer Stapp.

Unfinished Business: LuAnn Benton thanked the Nominating Committee for their work. The slate was presented and unanimously approved. (Slate appears elsewhere in this Pegmatite.)

New Business: Motion carried to allow LuAnn Benton to relabel the mailbox cubbyholes in the Casting Room, and to stock them with forms.

(Any member may attend Board meetings. The next one is scheduled for April 18, 2022, at 7 p.m. and will be held via GoToMeeting. Please contact Jim Parrish at curator@sdmg.org to be added to the attendance list.)

The membership year “officially” starts on July 1 and ends the following year on June 30. There is no pro-rating of dues so it doesn’t matter when you sign-up or renew – all memberships will expire June 30, 2022.

There are two ways to apply for or renew your membership –

1.) Send a check with your membership form to the membership secretary. The renewal form can be found on the SDMG website at:

sdmg.org/pdf/sdmg-membership-app-and-renewal.pdf

OR

2.) Sign up online using major credit cards via PayPal. Visit the SDMG website for details at:

sdmg.org/sdmg-membership/

Membership renewals are usually mailed to current members in late May or early June, and are typically “due” before classes begin in September, because people must be current members to attend fall classes. Some just pay their membership dues in class, on the day they show up, which is fine.
